

POCKET CHANGE TEAM MEMBERS

Allison Evans – Works at an architecture firm specializing in green design, while pursuing a degree in Environmental Studies at York University.

Bryan Dale – Doctorate in Geography and Environmental Studies from the University of Toronto specializing in climate change mitigation and sustainable food production.

Catharina DeRuyter – Registered nurse at St. Michael's Hospital.

Craig Jasman – Green energy enthusiast and early adopter, having installed a solar thermal system in 2009; Good technical knowledge of photovoltaic systems; Member of the Board of Queen St. Solar.

David Langille – Specialist in community development and social activism, founding director of the Centre for Social Justice; now teaching public policy and social activism at York and University of Toronto.

Donna Lee – Realtor with Royal LePage Signature Realty, 2016 President's Gold Award Winner for RLP National Sales Recognition.

Eric Stein – Project Manager, Better Buildings Partnership at City of Toronto – responsible for reducing GHG emissions and improving energy efficiency in Toronto's existing buildings.

Gord Fraser – Director of The Ravina Project; a green energy research project. B.A. from Trent, educator and amateur scientist.

Kelly Pike – Cornell PhD, Assistant Professor, Human Resource Management at York University. Extensive fieldwork in Sub-Saharan Africa for UN, ILO and World Bank.

Liisa Repo-Martel – Gemini award winning Canadian actress and artist.

Marc van Beusekom – Project Manager at Options for Homes, and Senior Development Consultant, Options for Green Energy/Options for Cars – a developer of community-financed renewable energy projects.

Michael J. O'Neill – Global Manager, Corporate Events at Armstrong Fluid Technology, which supplies district heating and cooling projects around the world.

Paul Dowsett – Founding Principal Architect at SUSTAINABLE and Passive House Planner with more than three decades of local and international residential, institutional and commercial sustainable design and project management experience. His own home is so well-retrofitted that the income from his solar panels more than pay for his gas bill.

Paul Woodman – An electronic engineering technician, with extensive experience in telecommunications, information technology, account management and distribution sales.

Susan McMurray – Chair of Pocket Community Association and Eastview Community Centre, now EA at Toronto & York Region Labour Council. Masters in History and another in Economics, 24 years in Ontario ministries, Cabinet Office and Elections Ontario;

Supriya Syal – Cornell PhD with 15 years of experience across academic, private, and public sectors. Founder of Dulcimer Labs, which uses behavioural science and evidence-based decision-making to create social impact, she has the experience, capacity and expertise to conduct research, design and testing of interventions either through iterative prototyping or randomized control trials for behavioural or citizen-centered design projects.